WEDNESDAY.....APRIL 26, 1876.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The House Committee on Appropriations has agreed to the report of its sub-committee relating to the salaries of Postmasters. It saves about $50,000 yearly.

The Supreme Court has decided the noted Hot Springs cases. The court reaffirms the judgment of the Court of Claims, that none of the claimants are entitled to the lands as against the Government.

Lieutenant-Commander Johnson, commanding the United States naval force on the Rio Grande, telegraphs to the Navy Department that all reports of forced loans on foreign merchants at New Laredo are untrue.

In the case of the Otez mine of New Mexico, the Secretary of the Interior affirms the survey of 1861, as now occupied by the New Mexico Mining Company and directs the issuance of a patent to the company in accordance with the survey. The quantity of land involved is over 60,000 acres.

Secretary Chandler has reversed the decision of the General Land Office in the case of the ex-mining lands of San Diego, and orders that the survey made by the Surveyor General of California be approved, modified only so far as is necessary in the Eastern boundary to conform with the survey of the Cajon ranch. The patent will be issued as soon as the corrected plats of the survey can be obtained from the Surveyor-General of California. The decision gives the ranch claimants about 50,000 acres, and includes several thousand acres on the Southwest corner, which were excluded by the Commissioner's decision.

In San Francisco yesterday, Edward Farrel, shot and fatally wounded a man named McDevell. It was the latter's wife.

THE effect of the increased car fare in San Francisco is that people now walk who never walked before, and those who always walked now walk the more.

SENATOR JONES has at last delivered his great speech on the currency question. The effort was made on Monday, and a full summary of the speech was printed in his Los Angeles paper last evening. The Senator proposes nothing new or valuable, and his ideas are very similar to those already advanced on the same subject by our townsmen, Colonel PEEL and Mr. BARROWS.

FROM FRANCIS D. CLARK, Secretary and Treasurer of the Association, we acknowledge the receipt of a pamphlet containing the toasts, speeches and other proceedings at a meeting and dinner of "The Associated Pioneers of the Territorial Days of California," held at the Stewart House, New York, on the 11th of February. It is a very interesting document to those who remember the days and the pioneers.

ARE we to have another Republican paper in Los Angeles? We hear that a man from the Express office has worn out a pair of boots walking about town endeavoring to induce Republicans to take stock in a Republican paper to be issued from that office. If the people of Los Angeles could be induced to take stock in anything connected with the Express we might anticipate the appearance of another daily in a short time. But as they cannot be so induced we fear the pilgrim will be out and injured his boots and have only his pains for his labor.

Another Unwarranted Charge Disposed Of.

One of the indictments preferred by the dissidents against Governor IRWIN is that he signed the West Side Irrigation bill and refused his signature to the Tuolumne Railroad subsidy bill. Both bills, it is claimed, were in effect steps for the granting of subsidy, and both were asked for by the people on whom would be imposed the burden of taxation, and therefore the Governor's refusal to sign one and his signing the other savor of inconsistency. A close examination of the two bills will show a wide difference in their spirit, power and intention. In the fact that the Tuolumne bill was mandatory, while the other is subject to the will of the people, will be found sufficient evidence to entirely refute the charge of inconsistency. Again, the Irrigation bill was urged as a measure which would bring into a high state of cultivation a broad area of now uncultivated land, while the Tuolumne bill would add a heavy tax to the residents of an already overtaxed and sparsely settled county, while it offered no assurance that it would materially increase either the population or the taxable wealth of the locality. Tuolumne is a mining county, and local railroads in mining counties benefit a few individuals rather than the majority. The owners of mines, lodes and timber, reap the benefits of such roads, while the laboring community profits little. As a rule, short railroads extending into mining counties should be built by the proprietors of quarries, quartz mines and timber belts to which they reach, and who are almost the only persons whose interests are greatly enhanced thereby. We predict that the day will come when a large majority of the people of Tuolumne county will thank Governor IRWIN for withholding his signature from a bill which would have imposed a heavy tax on them for the building of a railroad that would have been owned and operated and the profits pocketed by a few individuals.

A PROPOSITION TO SETTLE.

An argument in common use with the enemies of the Central and Southern Pacific Railroad Companies is that they do not intend to pay the bonds held against their roads by the Government. It is true that these bonds do not mature for many years yet to come, but the injustice of assuming that the debtor does not intend to pay a score of years before the day of payment, does not seem to possess any weight with those gentlemen whose mission in this world appears to be that of denunciators of railroad corporations. Another battle cry in the contest with our railroad companies is their acquisition of a large amount of the public domain and the holding of the same at rates so high as to prevent the purchase and cultivation thereof by those who would become actual settlers. This one point has been a prolific theme for both writers and speakers. Railroad lands have engendered more eloquent speeches and supplied the text for a greater number of "leaders" than any other one of the thousand questions dragged into politics. Yet strange as it may appear, and in direct contradiction of the oft-repeated assertion of anti-railroad fanatics, the Central Pacific Railroad Company actually proposes to both pay the thirty million dollars it will owe the Government on the maturity of the bonds, and return the lands which we are frequently assured are so much needed for settlers. With the full consent of the Central Pacific Railroad Company a bill has been introduced in the United States Senate which provides for the creation of a sinking fund that will enable the Company to return to the Government the full value of the bonds which were issued by the Government in aid of the construction of the road. The bill provides,

Weather clear and calm.

San Francisco News.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25th.—Dom Pedro and suite arrived at 4 P. M. and are at the Palace Hotel. Gilmore's band serenaded the party while he was at the hotel, and raising a band and spike struck him over the head, knocking him senseless; thinking he had only fainted, and fearful of the consequences when his brutality should become known, he struck him again, and again until life became extinct, and finishing by covering the body in an adjacent log heap, and threatening the girl with like treatment unless she promised silence. He gave out that the boy had ran away and nothing strange was thought of the matter until yesterday, when the little girl, in answer to a question admitted that she knew the whereabouts of her brother but was afraid to tell. Upon being questioned closely she gave a full account of the murder. The whole neighborhood turned out; after a short search found the body, partially decomposed by exposure. Upon suspicion being aroused Baumer attempted to escape, but was arrested and lodged in jail.

Rev. Mr. Parker, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Ashland, Ky., left home last Wednesday in a rather mysterious manner, in the company of a young girl of his congregation. It is thought they came to this city. He had been stationed at that place for twenty years, and has been regarded as an exemplary man. His conduct is the subject of much comment. He left a wife and several children at Ashland. He had recently been called to a church near Baltimore, and his friends expected him to soon leave for his new field of labor.

The Riot.

LONDON, April 25th.—In the House of Commons this afternoon, Mr. Haworth made a statement explaining that the late riot in Barbadoes was from the cause of a robbery of provisions. The police fired on the mob, when affairs looked serious and became so threatening the military was dispatched from Jamaica. Tranquillity has now been restored. A special Commission will be issued to try offenders.

More Belknap.

NEW YORK, April 25th.—Telegrams' Washington special says Clymer denies that he promised Belknap immunity from impeachment, on condition that he should resign all he said to Montgomery Blair. Belknap's council says, if Belknap has not resigned by to-morrow noon, I shall move for his impeachment, that he gave no assurance of any kind.

Disastrous for the Turks.

RAGUSA, April 23d.—The second attempt of the Turkish forces under the Pasha to relieve the garrison of Nisic has signally failed, and the Turks are in full retreat. The insurgents have gained a very decided advantage and have beaten back the enemy with considerable loss. Several insurgent columns are pursuing, and it is believed that Mukhail's army will be destroyed.

International Wrestling Match.

NEW YORK, April 24th.—The international wrestling match, for the championship of America and $1,000, between Harry Howard, of Philadelphia, and Albert Ellis, of London, took place to-day. The betting was $50 to $40 in Ellis, who won after an obstinate struggle lasting two hours.

An accident occurred on the railroad between Colton and Seven Palms yesterday, by which three Chinamen were injured quite severely. It seems that a gang of bands were passing along the line on a hand car, when one of the Celestials, by some means was knocked off the car, and in falling he grabbed hold of two others and brought them to the ground. One had a leg broken, another an arm and the third came out of the affair with his face and head badly damaged. ab21-tf

On Tuesday the 30th, a grand excursion to San Fernando will take place. An opportunity will be afforded to examine the great railway cut in the mountain. For this purpose Harper and Woodruff will have their stages on hand, and every facility will be afforded for a good day's enjoyment. There will doubtless be a large attendance.

Among the many strangers who are visiting us just now there are quite a number who are taking a survey of the surroundings with a view to permanent investment in real estate. The negotiations inaugurated yesterday will be quite a large amount, and although some complain that times are hard, there is a fair prospect for a lively trade during the coming season. Property is increasing in demand, and in value.

On Tuesday the 18th inst., Mr. S. Levy shipped a lot of wool and corn by the Los Angeles to San Francisco. The freight was shipped at 9 A. M., and at 10 o'clock was landed on the steamer, and by the 22d was sold and Mr. Levy informed by telegraph. Such a fact speaks volumes for the San Monroa road.

Hon. W. W. Wilcox, the Mariposa blacksmith, is quite ill with rheumatic gout in San Francisco. He proposes as soon as he is able to visit Southern California to recuperate.

Mr. John R. Lawrence yesterday connected with the press of this city. We congratulate the company on the selection of an editor. Mr. Hawley is an editor of many years experience. He yields an able and energetic pen, and we predict that under his management the interest of San Bernardino county will not be neglected.

Libel Suits.

In the columns of a couple of our contemporaries we see it stated, that one Swanwick has commenced suit against the HERALD for $50,000, the Mirror for $50,000, Robinson for $25,000 and a criminal action against Yarnell. These suits are for libel and malicious prosecution. Estimating the gratification of landing Yarnell in the State Prison at $75,000—a very low figure for so much happiness—we find that Swanwick has started out on a one million dollar speculation. Swaney, my boy, your swan will be transmogrified into a very goosey sort of a goose before you touch the coin. We are sorry for Yarnell and the HERALD does not mind these little episodes. Fifty thousand dollars is no money for the HERALD. It can just as easily pay $1,000,000 as $1,000, and for the fact that we pay a legal firm $2000 per annum to defend our libel suits, we might give Swaney 25 cents to stop the proceedings. As it is however, we will give our lawyers a chance to earn their money. Go in Swaney.

New Paper Management.

We understand a joint stock company is about being formed for the purchase of one of the San Bernardino papers. The company, we are informed, includes a number of leading and wealthy citizens of San Bernardino city and county, who are desirous of representing the locality through the columns of a more influential paper than the financial means of the present owners enable them to present. Incidentally we have heard that if the proposition is carried into effect, the company will place the editorial control of the journal in the hands of Mr. A. T. Hawley, who has been for a long time connected with the press of this city. We congratulate the company on the selection of an editor. Mr. Hawley is an editor of many years experience. He yields an able and energetic pen, and we predict that under his management the interest of San Bernardino county will not be neglected.

A Card.

Noticing a card in the HERALD of this date wherein it is stated that the Champion Mower is at a late trial near Visalia was gloriously victorious, outstripping all of its rivals, allow me to ask friend Seymour what other machine than Champion competed at that trial of merit for superiority? If Mr. Seymour is desirous of proving up the Champion in Los Angeles, with any and all mowers, I will be glad to meet him in the field, at his notice of one day, and will pit the Walter & Wood improved iron frame brass bedings mower against the Champion in either dry grass, grain, clover, weeds, or all combined; the trial to be subject to the decision of three persons to be selected—he one, I and the two named to call the third—as umpires of the test. The stakes shall be ten dollars each, the winner to take the twenty dollars. S. L. DEWEY.

When offices are open, applicants are ever numerous. Justice Gray is a candidate for the position of Police Judge, and the popular pleasure will be gratified by his receiving the honor he aspires to. He is in every way qualified for the position and will honor the station should he receive the appointment.

Officers Charles and Turner captured a drunk on Commercial street yesterday afternoon and managed to get him as far as Spring street when trouble began. They put on the nippers and had to drag him to the jail. In the tussle the garment commonly called pants came off much to the amusement of the boys.

Private disputes inform us that Don Pedro, Emperor of Brazil, has arrived at Frisco and is stopping at the Palace Hotel, where he has created quite an excitement, but not such a one as the important has, where clothing, boots and hats are sold at an immense sacrifice.

There are a large number of visitors in the city, some seeking health, and many for pleasure. The charming weather of yesterday prompted many to make a survey of the city, and livery teams were in great demand, and the various avenues presented a lively appearance. Los Angeles is, after all, the favorite resort for invalids or pleasure seekers.

On Tuesday the 30th, a grand excursion to San Fernando will take place. An opportunity will be afforded to examine the great railway cut in the mountain. For this purpose Harper and Woodruff will have their stages on hand, and every facility will be afforded for a good day's enjoyment. There will doubtless be a large attendance.

Among the many strangers who are visiting us just now there are quite a number who are taking a survey of the surroundings with a view to permanent investment in real estate. The negotiations inaugurated yesterday will be quite a large amount, and although some complain that times are hard, there is a fair prospect for a lively trade during the coming season. Property is increasing in demand, and in value.
